Raptor Show news for this week:

- Astro's little forest is growing!
- Bundled up for the winter :-)
- We still feed and train every day!

If you want to donate, click here and then click the Raptor Show Donation button - we need your help to feed and care for our show ambassadors and to build their new enclosures and viewing area. The amphitheater will have to wait until we get sufficient donations. That is where your help comes in!

Thank you so much!

Astro has a ten-tree Aspen forest!

Astro took only minutes to "learn" how to fly between ten Aspen trees at full speed!
Soon we will add ten more. We really can't take credit for his amazing flight capability, because in the words of Beatle Ringo Star, "It comes naturally!" That is

Daily Training Exhibitions On Hold

Kinda-Sorta and we mean it!

Check the calendar at: www.wmnature.org to see if we are open to the public on a particular day. We plan to go back to daily exhibitions again in March depending on weather. But if you have a group that wants to watch us train and feed the birds, email: funky@landonsky.org and see what he says. We just don't want to look out and see Guests frozen to their seats!

Feel free to stop by between 3 & 4 PM any day of the week. We train and feed regardless of the weather. We just don't want to look out and see frozen Guests!

Use the driveway just South of the Nature Center to park next to the Rehab Bldg.

News from the White Mountain Nature Center

Finance/Accounting ~ The Nature Center needs you!

A vacancy in the Treasurer position will occur at the end of this year

QuickBooks knowledge required. Must attend monthly Board Meetings.

A hearty group of hikers led by Ron Miller prepares to hit the trail on a chilly November 5th ~ snow covered morning.

BEFORE: Our merry group departs!

AFTER: A little snow to brush off!

Several of the White Mountain Nature Center Board of Directors attended an NAU workshop sponsored by the Town of Show Low on Friday. Covered a lot of important material to help shape the Nature Center's Board going forward.

November 12th ~ Rob Bettaso ~ A trip to Patagonia

On Nov 12th Rob Bettaso will give a slide presentation of his 2019 trip to Patagonia in southern Argentina and Chile. The trip was a combination of backpacking and day hiking in various National Parks plus sight-seeing in a few small towns and 1 large city (beautiful Buenos Aires). The 3 week adventure will be presented in a slide show that will run approximately 1 hour and starts at 6pm in the White Mountain Nature Center. The show is free, though the Nature Center appreciates donations and/or memberships. Refreshments will be served.
